

December in your garden

You can sow seeds now for vegetables that can be harvested during autumn.

Seeds to sow now:-

Beans (climbing & bush), beetroot, silverbeet, cabbages, capsicum, carrots, lettuce, marrows, parsley, parsnips, pumpkins, radish, sweet corn, cauliflower & broccoli.

Seedlings – beetroot, silverbeet, cabbage, capsicum, lettuce, parsley, tomatoes, cauliflower & broccoli.

Flowers

Seeds or seedlings – Ageratum, amaranthus, snapdragons, aster, begonia, carnations, celosia, cosmos, dwarf dahlia, dianthus, nasturtium, petunias, phlox, portulaca, salvia, torenia, verbena & zinnia.

Watch for thrip on your roses & gladioli. Thrip are a very minute insect that sucks the sap from the petals, and the flowers appear to be distorted and burnt. Spray with rose spray. If black spot appears on the roses, spray with rose spray.

Watch for Fruit Fly in apples, pears, peaches, nectarine & quinces. If using a Fruit Fly Trap, check how many insects are in the trap; and if the numbers are many, spray the fruit trees with Lebaycide every 3 weeks, and 2 weeks before ripening.

Dahlia tubers should be growing now; give them a feed of complete fertilizer or some liquid manure, and tie the plants to the stakes if needed.

Herb of the Month

Nasturtium (tropaeolum majus)

There are many varieties of this colourful hardy plant - climbers, semi-trailers, spreading compact dwarf. Nasturtiums have a round flat leaf with yellow-green veins with red, yellow or orange trumpet-like flowers which appear in mid-summer to autumn.

Nasturtiums thrive in full sun or partial shade. Sow the seeds 20cm apart in late spring in any free-draining soil. The poorer the soil, the more flowers.

Uses:

Both the leaves and the flower buds have a cress-like flavour and add a bite to salads and sandwiches.

The young seeds have a stronger flavour and are sometimes used chopped as a substitute for horseradish in sauce tartare. Pickled in vinegar, they resemble capers.

The flowers can make a stunning garnish.

The leaves have high vitamin C content and are thought to relieve cold symptoms.

The Nasturtium seems to attract hover flies, which will attack aphids on nearby plants, making it a useful companion plant. It also attracts white cabbage moth, the moths lay their eggs on the plant, which helps the cabbage plants.

January in your Garden

January can be hot and dry; mulching around your plants will help keep in the moisture.

Mulches – Well rotted sawdust, lawn clippings, compost, peat moss or straw can be used. If using straw, lay a few sheets of newspaper on first, to stop oat seeds from the straw growing in your garden.

Vegetables – carrots, parsnips, dwarf beans, sweet corn, beetroot, broccoli, brussel sprouts, cabbages, celery, kohlrabi, lettuce & radish – seed or seedlings can still be sown.

Flowers – ageratum, snapdragons, carnations, dianthus, marigold, phlox, petunia & verbena.

Lawns can be fed now with a dressing of Sulphate of Ammonia; water in well or wait until it rains and sprinkle the dressing around.

Roses do better if watered twice a week, a good soaking around the roots.

Health Advisory Committee

A BUSY TIME FOR COMMITTEE MEMBERS

Shortly before the last Meeting of the Goulburn Health Advisory Committee (GHAC) on Thursday, 23 October 2008, members were taken on a 'walk-around' of the Base Hospital campus; aimed particularly at providing newer members with an enhanced knowledge of the various on-site services and facilities.

During the meeting, a number of important issues were discussed and resolved. It was advised that profiles of the Committee Representatives have been completed, and will appear in a forthcoming edition of the 'Goulburn Post'. Members were informed that former Councillor, Maureen Eddy, had tendered her resignation from the GHAC. Ms Eddy always provided valuable input to the many matters that came before the Committee.

Greater Southern Health Service (GSAHS) provides interface with GHAC's through its Area Health Advisory Council (AHAC) of which our local identity, Dr Trish Saccasan-Whelan, is a representative. As part of her ongoing role, Dr Saccasan-Whelan will attend local GHAC meetings. Our Committee is also soon to have a local Mental Health representative on board, with further details to be provided in the near future.

At its recent 'Trivia Night' held in the CWA rooms, the Phoenix Committee raised well over $1,000, and the proceeds will go a long way to providing additional patient equipment at the Bourke Street Health Service. New signs are also being provided by our Council to make the Bourke Street facility much easier to identify within the community. On Friday, 31 October 2008, a small informal gathering met at Giles Court to officially open the new Activities Room. Members of the GHAC also attended, and a light morning tea was served following the dedication.

Committee members have been particularly busy attending meetings and seminars, recently. Of particular interest was the Innovative Practice Day presentations, and the AHAC meeting. During the AHAC meeting, GHAC community representatives were afforded an opportunity to address the forum and discuss a number of pressing local issues. A number of members also attended the Berrima District Credit Union's official launch of the Goulburn Base Hospital Foundation.

The final GHAC meeting for 2008 will be held on Thursday, 27 November 2008, at the Community Health Centre commencing at 4:15pm as a meeting will not be held during December.

The Windellama Garden Club Country Fair which was held on the 15th November was a successful day for entrants in the flower, craft, cooking and photography. Entries were down on last year, but some clever people, young and older, exhibited some lovely things.

Outside the spectators enjoyed watching the woodchop exhibition by the talented young men. Angie Mooney's whip cracking was also a hit. The chocolate wheel did a great business, also the raffle and stalls.

Many thanks to the people who came to support our day, the stall holders, the Windellama P&C for the food, Animal for the music, and all the members and volunteers who helped in the Hall and on the gate and outside.

The raffle was won by the McFarlane, Kinder and Bowes families.

Participants can read fiction, non fiction, magazines or listen to talking books.

The Summer Reading Club will end on Wednesday 21 January when all the reading logs need to be returned to the library in preparation for our presentation morning on Friday 23 January. All participants who hand in their reading logs get a certificate and go into the draw to win one of the major prizes of a $50.00 gift voucher. To participate in the Summer Reading Club is free.

Congrats to Local Medal Winner

Windellama Public School encourages their students to enroll into the International Competitions and Assessments for Schools (ICAS) each year. This is run through the University of NSW and is an international competition. Students compete from a variety of countries other than Australia, such as Fiji, India, Hong Kong, New Zealand & USA. They can compete in a variety of subjects such as computer skills, maths, spelling, science & writing.

Toby Daniel entered the computer skills exam and received 100% for this. All entrants who get 100% correct are presented with a medal. This presentation was held at UNSW last Friday with approximately 200 kids from NSW & ACT receiving a medal.

Windellama Picnic & Dance

The annual Christmas Tree, picnic and dance, held at the local hall was attended by residents from the whole countryside, and again proved to be a source of enjoyment for the district children, who look forward to their big 'day out' from one year to another.

A large Christmas Tree which was decorated by district ladies, and laden with about 90 presents, inspired many appreciative glances. Santa Clause arrived about 3pm and presented every child with a suitable present.

The usual programme of racing was then carried out with the following results:

Toddlers -	Gloria McGaw
Girls 6-9 -	Merle Williams
Girls 10 & over -	Betty Williams
Boys 6-9 -	Ray Croker
Boys 10 & over -	Norman Gegg
Girls 3-legged race -	Betty Shepherd & Valmai Croker
Boy's sack race -	Don Williams
Ladies race -	1st Mrs. Hush, 2nd Miss Joan Croker

The dance that followed was a complete success and after allowing for all expenses, about £6 was cleared, from which a donation has been paid into the HMAS Sydney fund.
