Our Policy on Receipts

The Windellama News makes out a receipt for all advertising payments made to the paper. We don't post out receipts to save cost and we assume that the appearance of the advertisement in the paper could normally be taken as proof of payment.

If you require a posted receipt please include a stamped self-addressed envelope with your payment.

It would be greatly appreciated if anyone sending money to the Windellama News would include their name and address and a note saying what it was for and put it in a sealed envelope. This would avoid a lot of confusion and uncertainty .

Willow Glen Road Gardeners

The next get together will be at Lieschen & Bob Beier's
789 Willow Glen Road
on Tuesday 2nd March, starting at 10am.

All who are interested in gardening wanting to know how to garden in our area with all its variances, problems, pests, etc. are most welcome.

We take it in turn to host our get togethers, so we get to see various styles of gardens, soil types, situations, etc.

There is no charge or membership requirements or formal meetings; but please bring a plate for morning tea to share with you when you come.

For any information you can ring Warren Yates on 4844 5350.

Windellama Historical Society

The next exhibition on display at Windellama Museum will feature Gold in our Area as the theme.

With this in mind, there will be a visit organised by Windellama Historical Society to 'Spring Creek' to look at the remnant diggings there, also the water race, and much more.

The date for this excursion will be . The last visit was in October 2001 with quite a large number of folk eager to visit the site.

The museum is open on Market Days – the third Sunday of each month, from 10am.

If you wish to purchase a piece of local history in books, postcards, bookmarks, etc., then go no further than your local Windellama Museum.

Next Meeting will be held at the Museum, Friday , pm.

NEW MEMBERS ARE ALWAYS WELCOME

Windellama SES First Aid & CFR

Another month has gone by very quickly. We had during this period, three callouts, which appears to be insignificant, when compared to the following : which is taken from a letter sent to all N.S.W. Health Volunteers, from the Ambulance Service of N.S.W.

Letter dated the 15/02/2010. Permission was obtained before reprinting same.

"As we celebrate N.S.W. Health Volunteer Appreciation Day, we acknowledge that behind most community organisations are the helping hands of volunteers. The Ambulance Service of N.S.W. is no exception and we are grateful to have such a large volunteer base, without whom, we would not be able to provide the emergency medical service we are renowned for. More people have needed our help this year than ever before, with over one million Triple Zero (000) calls received".

It is timely to make note of the quote of TRIPLE ZERO, as there is no such thing as triple "O". We have all been guilty of this, but please try and break the habit.

The roads are in a terrible state, after the torrential downpour on Sunday 14th so please take extra care.

From your C.F.R. Team.

Kevin Muffet.

Team Leader.

We are still consistently being visited by 1500 unique (new) visitors each month along with many regular visitors.

The web version is in colour and is always to hand at the push of a button.

Do you have new neighbours?

Why not pass on your hard copy of the Windellama News to them. This is probably the best way for newcomers to find out about the local activities and also to find and use our local trades and services.

Locals Linking Landscapes

A public meeting was hosted by the Windellama Progress Association and Windellama Landcare Group on Saturday 13 February to listen to and respond to a proposal from the Upper Shoalhaven Catchment Management Authority (USCMA) for a coordinated program of projects in the Windellama area.

At the well attended meeting over 60 people were informed, instructed, entertained and cajoled by David Hilhorst and Dave Anthony from the USCMA to discuss their problems and then develop a series of projects that will provide a shared vision for the Windellama and beyond landscape.

The participants identified their major concerns such as weeds, soil health, including salinity, acidity and erosion, soil management, including grazing management and revegetation, also feral pests, motor bikes and off-stream water. A number of possible solutions were also outlined. David then encouraged the meeting to think beyond their own properties and develop a broader landscape focus.

The discussions were well informed by the use of computerised maps that illustrated wetland areas, areas of serrated tussock, woodland and grassland areas and areas of potential salinity in the broader Windellama area.

The meeting endorsed the concept that projects have or contributed to connections between projects, be it wild-life corridors or linking woodlands or grasslands or addressing related erosion concerns.

David Hilhorst sought expressions of interest from participants for projects that address the concerns raised with a strong preference for those that demonstrated the principle of connection including cooperation between neighbours. Expressions of interest can be submitted to David Hilhorst at the Upper Shoalhaven Catchment Management Authority, Braidwood by 5 March.
