Windellama School P & C

A final term

With just ten weeks of schooling left, the P&C is set for a busy end-of-year.

Once again we are organising the children's activities and the Cow Pat Competition at the Field Day on 3rd November. Both require a bit of effort on the day so we would welcome any parents who may be able to help out for an hour or two.

In addition, we're always keen to speak to anyone who can assist with child-friendly animals for the animal nursery. If you have a poddy baby we can borrow, please let us know via the school (t: 4844 5130).

In the past few months we've seen a couple of new families join the school – some have even come along to experience their first Windellama P&C meeting. The committee extends a warm welcome to all.

CALL TO ALL ARTISTS & ART LOVERS

The Goulburn & District Art Society in conjunction with the Goulburn Workers Club is once again conducting its Annual Art Prize. The popular event, which is held in the Workers Club Auditorium, will be opened by the Mayor, Jeff Kettle at 6.30pm on Thursday 1st November 2012 and is open to the public.

The exhibition will be open for general viewing on Friday 2nd, Saturday the 3rd, and closing at 4pm Sunday 4th November. It would assist our catering if you could RSVP the art society if you are intending to come to the opening.

Paintings are for sale and the standards of art works are always high. We hope to see a large crowd at the opening and throughout the 3 days of the exhibition.

The President and Committee of the Art Society extend an invitation to all artists, to answer the 'CALL TO ART' and submit their works to the competition and for the enjoyment of the broader community. The Art Society is extremely pleased to announce that it has secured the services of renowned Crookwell Artist Margaret Shepherd to judge this year's works.

There are Five (5) Competition Sections:

- Oil & Acrylic;
- Watercolour/Pen & Wash;
- Other Medium;
- Non-Traditional
- Section for G.D.A.S. members only.

In addition there will be two encouragement awards. A total prize money of $4000 makes participating in it well worthwhile.

Entry forms, deadlines and conditions of participating can be obtained on www.artsociety.goulburn.net.au

Willow Glen Gardeners

Nestled within the quiet Windellama countryside lies the home of Marjorie and our meeting place for September. Built up on the side of a hill, the house and gardens feature stunning and uninterrupted views all the way to the mountains while still offering the tranquil privacy of its bush setting.

Perfect weather greeted us as we arrived and waited patiently while the boys spent some time putting together our seating arrangements, then we drank tea, ate cake and soaked up the glorious morning sun on the front veranda where we held our meeting.

Apart from the ever present (and persistent) weeds, there were few problems to solve this month, but now that the gardens are beginning to wake up after winter we were reminded too much and feed our fruit trees and not to forget to spray stone fruit trees with lime sulphate just before they bloom to prevent curly leaf.

A walk around the garden proved that despite challenging soil conditions, Marjorie has still managed to create several successful garden spaces containing a variety of shrubs and flowering plants as well as a substantial orchard of various fruit trees just beginning to burst with beautiful blossoms.

One of the wonderful things about garden club is that we have the opportunity to share a variety of cuttings and baby plants with each other, this month was no exception! Spring coaxing us back into the garden meant an abundant collection of freebies ranging from the beautiful Snowball Viburnum to everyone's old favourite chrysanthemums.

An altogether relaxing day in the sun was had by most of us, unfortunately we received an unwanted visit from one of the world's seven wonders, and we send our best well wishes to Victoria and hope she is recovering quickly from her fall.

Our next meeting will be held at 10am Tues 2nd October at Peter & Maria's place – 2762 Braidwood Rd, Lake Bathurst.

Please bring your own chair and a plate to share.

Windellama SES First Aid & CFR

Levelling of our Unit Site has finally started. Further to that, may I take the opportunity to remind all dwelling occupiers to make sure that their houses and ancillary building, rooves, gutters and downpipes are all free of debris, of whatever kind. There are two reasons for this, firstly, the storm season will soon be upon us, resulting in flooding into your ceiling space, the other reason is that the fire season is rapidly approaching, fire will quickly eventuate from the same problem. Remember that a ceiling can be replaced due to flooding, fire can result in a very much more serious consequence, so the onus is on you.

I know I have covered this subject before, but here it is again: we came across a vehicle recently that had been left unattended after having rolled on the edge of a main road. Two members of the S.E.S had to have the very unpleasant task of looking along the road to see if anybody was in an injured or worse state within a short distance of this vehicle.

Now the Fire Brigade member was in the same situation as were the Police who attended. Those who either vacate the scene on their own, or are transported for whatever reason, (other than by emergency personnel,) must leave some note, whether it be scrawled on part of the car, using lipstick or whatever, must be left to give the relevant authorities this vital information.

Ambo's and Police time costs you the taxpayer money, for us volunteers it costs us time, so why take advantage of us?

It is now up to all to show some courtesy in this regard.

We now at this time, have two local members attending C.F.R training with the Ambulance, good on them.

May I wish Cath, Rex & Andrew all the very best.

Regards Kevin Muffet
Team Leader
Windellama C.F.R & S.E.S

WINDELLAMA FARM

Following the successful excursion to the site of the travellers Rest Hotel last month I thought I would tell something about the land that the hotel was on.

This land, Portion 1 Parish Cullulla County Argyle was granted in November 1837 to Thomas Braidwood Wilson as an outstation for his extensive land holdings at Braidwood (hence the name) and at Lake George.

Thomas Braidwood Wilson was born 13 April 1792 in Scotland. He trained as a surgeon during the Napoleonic Wars. He made 9 trips to New South Wales on convict ships as surgeon. In 1827 he was promised land at present day Braidwood area that he called Braidwood Farm.

When the town was established on part of his land it took its name from his second name. He died in 1843.

An interesting snippet into his Windellama land can be found in the book, The life and times of A Colonial Woman, Mary Braidwood Mowle by Patricia Clarke.

Thomas Braidwood Wilson

An employee of Wilson was Samuel Rawson. When Rawson arrived in Australia in August 1838 Wilson sent a horse with the postman to meet Rawson at Bungonia. They intended to stay at Wilson's Windellama property before going on to Bungonia.

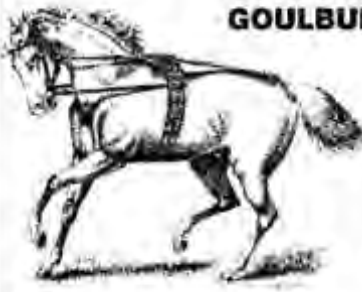

The Postman (a convict) was very drunk—we lost our way & lost the letter bags & it was not till near midnight that we reached Windellima—a common bush hut where an old man and his wife lived, belonging to Dr Wilson. The next morning all turned out to look for the letter bags—found all but one so we did not start till near noon & had 40 miles to go to Braidwood, which we reached about 8 p.m. I never told the Dr of our adventures the previous evening, if I had, the man would have been flogged. I became very popular in consequence among the convicts. Dr Wilson had a nice house & a large establishment some 70 convicts & probably as many free men besides 12 or 15 000 sheep & great numbers of cattle & horses.

Information for these notes came from The life and times of A Colonial Woman, Mary Braidwood Mowle by Patricia Clarke.

PROUD SPONSOR OF "PEANUTS FUNNY FARM" LOCATED AT "ADROOK" ON OALLEN FORD ROAD.

Again, spring is sprung !! It has certainly been a cold winter, many frosts and sometimes as low as minus 8. Only this last Friday we had snow that laid ( photo below.)

We have had the three sad passings of Pesito, Corto and Guacho as reported before, all gone to Nirvana.

As of the 23rd of August we have a new member of the family and he is getting into the family routine very well. He is a six month old Rhodesian Ridgeback puppy and we have called him Montevideo or Monty for short. Mbale is called after a town where I lived in Uganda so I thought it only fair that Heroides should have a dog with a Uruguayan town's name.

We were going to get a six to eight week old puppy but after looking around, Monty seemed to fit our family well and I think it was meant to be. He has a pin in the top of his leg and a nail missing, where, as the story goes, his mother leapt into the whelping box. We all have leg problems here so it is ideal. We have had five cruceate leg operations with the dogs, two with shoulder and leg cancer and we both have arthritic legs, so I think it was ordained.

He is settling well and is learning not to chase the poultry and to be less greedy, a result I think of having to share with all the other dogs at his old home. He has only had three little wee accidents in the house which is not bad as he was in a run before. He now sleeps through the night in front of the fire. First ten nights spent there with Heroides on a mattress beside him. Has not cried once so must know this is home!!

We have had 8 baby bantams and I have one mother duck sitting, due soon.

We have a few Alpacas for sale, very lovely colours and pleasant characters and also please remember my book is also for sale through me.

Until next month.

Joy Alpaca Caregiver .

The Windellama Landcare working bee at the Chain-of-ponds on 8 September was held on a sunny but very chilly day. A small group of members put up two portions of fencing around the sensitive area – there is still more fencing to be finished. Marian's yummy sandwiches sustained us.

THE NEXT WINDELLAMA LANDCARE BUSY-BEE WILL BE ON FRIDAY 12 and SATURDAY 13 OCTOBER AT SERENGETI

The project is to halt an erosion gully in a paddock adjoining Nadgigomar Creek – we will use rock mattresses (or gabions) so it will also provide a good opportunity to see some developing techniques in erosion control. We will be joined by the Willoughby Bushcare Group from Sydney on the Saturday.

We will meet on BOTH FRIDAY & SATURDAY at 9.30 for a cuppa and a 10 am start. Morning tea and lunch will be provided. Please let Marian (4844 5244) or Sandra (4844 5047) know if you are able to come so we can organise appropriate quantities of the FOOD! And don't forget to bring work gloves!

Membership: If you are new to the area and you are interested in joining Landcare why not join us at one of our working bees. Membership of Windellama Landcare is $5.00 per family. Call Judy Yates (4844 5350) or just turn up and see what we do. Children welcome!

Wild Windellama: Carina Clarke's articles about local birds, animals, plants, insects, fish and reptiles of the local area were published in the Windellama news over a number of years, are now collected in a two volume set called Wild Windellama. Copies are available from Windellama Landcare at $10.00 per set.

Christmas Party: Here is a date for your diary – the Windellama Landcare Group Christmas Party and AGM will be held on Saturday 1 December at the Landcare Shed (HQ). There will be more details next month.

EXPRESSION OF FEELINGS IN EARLY CHILDHOOD – Cont. Part (II)

Stage 5: Emotional Thinking:

When children reach the emotional thinking stage they go past labelling a feeling, they become able to think with these images starting to connect an idea and a feeling and recognising that one is causing the other e.g. they might say “I’m angry today because you didn’t come and play with me”.

At this stage children start to make the distinction between fantasy and reality. They understand more about what is coming from inside them and what influences are external to them. Children who find it difficult to process the information they are hearing find it much easier to live in their own private world. Greenspan and Salmon (1995) have found these children are usually very dramatic but when asked a difficult question they tend to ignore the question and retreat further into their own fantasies, compromising their emotional thinking.

Stage 6: The Age of Fantasy and Unlimited Power:

This is the stage when children from the age of four and a half to seven years develop their abilities to relate, communicate, imagine and think. They have a curiosity about life and a deep sense of wonder about the world. It is the stage where they may start to express themselves fearlessly.

Greenspan and Salmon (1995) have named this stage as the “world is my oyster”. There is a great sense of magic and little boys may imagine themselves to be a Ninja Turtle or a power ranger, while little girls may imagine themselves to be Cinderella or Barbie. The relationship they have with their parents and others around them helps to develop greater emotional flexibility allowing them to work out complicated feelings without volatile outbursts.

This is also the time where children may become fearful. For example, they may worry about ghosts or have bad feelings concerning being kidnapped. In a child who is oversensitive to sound or touch, the fearful side of life can be overwhelming.

If all goes well at this stage children start to understand what reality is, while at the same time still having a degree of fantasy and unlimited power. They have a better understanding of more complicated relationships and become more emotionally stable e.g. they develop a capacity for more “adult” emotions such as guilt or empathy (although empathy is easily lost when they are feeling jealous or competitive). Having all these abilities helps children move out into the wider world.

The Different Personality Traits in Children

A child’s personality is not simply a product of nature and nurture but a product of the continuous interplay between nature and nurture. Greenspan and Salmon (1995) state that “this interplay happens between children and their parents”. For example, parents nurture their child with warmth and love which interacts with the child’s nature, a new pattern of interaction is created. This new form of relationship helps children to develop the warmth and confidence they need.

A child’s temperament (nature) is considered to be what they are born with. If a child has a difficult temperament they can be faced with a great deal of challenges throughout their life. These children tend to sleep less and are more demanding and impulsive. Although the child’s temperament can stay with them to some extent and shape their personality it can be modified a great deal by the way they are loved (nurture). For example, if children are brought up in a nurturing environment and able to express their feelings whether sad or happy, they tend to have a smoother road than children who are brought up in a stressful or neglectful environment (Cooper, 2006).

Spring has sprung, Plums should have flowered. This month Pears and Apple are in blossom.

VEGETABLES

Seeds- Cucumber, zucchini, melons (watermelons & rockmelons), Pumpkins, Squashes, Parsley, capsicums, and sweet corn.

Sweet corn always sow in blocks to help with pollen from the male flowers or tassels at the top of the plant falling on the female flower. Space the rows 60cm apart. When sweet corn is growing well apply a side dressing of nitrogen fertilizer and again as the top tassel start to form. Sweet corn also makes a good windbreak for the smaller vegetables such as lettuce and dwarf beans.

Pumpkins are companion planting for sweet corn.

Tomatoes can be planted after the long weekend, but keep cover because we can still have frost. If you get your tomatoes started put them in a pot in a sheltered place or front veranda until the frost are over.

Beans and celery can also be planted. Watch celery for snails.

FLOWERS

Seedlings – Ageratum, alyssum (sweet alicia), asters, balsam, carnations, cosmos, dianthus, gypsophila, larkspur, linaria, lobelia, livingstone daisy, marigolds, nasturtiums, pansy, petunias, phlox, schizanthus, portulaca, verbenas.

Dahlia- dwarf seedling grow to 60cm in height and come in colours, of yellow, reds, and pinks. They are ideal for cut flowers and they don't require staking,

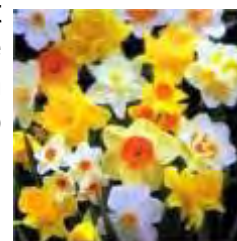

The seedling form a tuber which can be replanted next year.

The taller dahlias such as Decorative, cactus and water lily can be grown from a tuber. Tubers can be kept from year to year, when the dahlia have died down, preferably after they have been burnt by the frost, dig up the clumps with a fork and store them in a box covered with soil or damp sawdust in a shed where there is plenty of good ventilation but out of a draught. You can leave them in the ground if the soil does not get too water logged. The taller dahlia needs to be staked. Like all plants dahlias thrive in a moist soils providing a lot of compost is dug into it. As the plants start growing, a side dressing of complete fertilizer, also a water soluble fertilizer used over the foliage every month will ensure plenty of blooms.

Bulbs - When spring bulbs have finished flowering this month, feed them with a complete fertilizer, this assists the bulbs for next year's flowers. Do not cut off the leaves on the daffodils or jonquils, let them die down naturally this help with next years flowers.

PEST WATCH

Azalea petal blight is turning azalea flowers brown. Treat with the fungicide Zayleton as the buds are starting to colour. After flowering, remove dead blooms to reduce the spread of disease.

Aphid patrol should be in full swing as these pest move in to infest soft sappy growth on roses, garlic and fruit trees. Squirt with horticultural oil spray or soap or squish with your fingers.

Clean out your fireplace and put wood ash around plants that slugs infest - they will become coated in the ash and expire. Put any leftover ash onto your peonies, together with cow manure for good November blooms.

Watch for fungal problems on roses and grapevines. On roses, black spot and powdery mildew can indicate lack of air circulation. Spray with full cream milk diluted one part milk to 10 parts water, or use an ecologically friendly fungicide based on potassium bicarbonate.
